

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is my pleasure to recommend Mr. SAAD UL HASSAN S/O GHULAM QADIR, a dedicated, disciplined, and high-performing student of Fauji Foundation College, Attock City, under my supervision as a chemistry Lecturer. I have closely observed his academic growth, responsible behavior, and active involvement in college activities.

Mr. SAAD UL HASSAN consistently ranked among the top students in his class. He demonstrated a strong understanding of chemistry and other subjects, showing genuine interest in learning. He approached every academic task with focus, perseverance, and commitment. Tasks or study topics that normally required one hour were often completed with three to four hours of extra effort, ensuring 100% completion. This reflects his dedication, attention to detail, and sense of responsibility.

In addition to his academic excellence, he served as Class Prefect, guiding peers efficiently while displaying leadership, maturity, and reliability. He actively participated in college-organized extracurricular and support activities, demonstrating initiative, discipline, teamwork, and social responsibility. His involvement reflects strong leadership qualities and a proactive attitude.

Mr. SAAD UL HASSAN's consistent performance, strong work ethic, and commitment make him a valuable asset. I strongly recommend him for scholarships, leadership roles, or academic advancement, confident in his ability to excel wherever he joins.

Sincerely,
